

Please delay the vote on this important issue so that the will of the people can be made part of it. For the sake of our democracy, please.